Cleaning Up Our Campsite

RABBI ETHAN H. WITKOVSKY

If you do not see me around for a couple of Shabbatot this month, I do not think that I have run off to become a shepherd. I have the privilege of leading two trips down south for Park Avenue Synagogue youth this month. The first trip, for 8th graders, will take us to Atlanta, Georgia as well as Birmingham and Montgomery, Alabama with the travel education program Etgar 36 run by Billy Planer. PAS high school students went on this trip last year, led by Rabbi Zuckerman and Jen Stern; we are building on the success of their experience by taking our 8th graders this year.

Our second trip is for PAS members who are in high school students and will head down to New Orleans, where I was a rabbinic intern last year. This trip will have two focuses: to explore and experience Judaism outside of the Northeast (kosher jambalaya here we come!) and to see how communities of faith approach creating social justice. When I was in New Orleans, I saw the Conservative synagogue become involved in a city-wide social justice campaign concerning the issue of mass incarceration. Orleans Parish is per-capita, the most incarcerated population on the planet. The synagogue joined with many church communities to learn about the issue and discuss what steps should and could be taken to address this issue. Through this process I met men and women, both clergy and laypeople, who were deeply committed to social justice because of their religious beliefs. The synagogue now has an active tzedek committee working on many issues and exploring the ways in which a synagogue can be a productive member of its larger community for the good of everyone.

As committed Jews we care about maintaining our ancient wisdom, identity and traditions, but the rabbis remind us that when someone doesn't use their wisdom and abilities for the betterment of the world then those abilities are worth nothing. Judaism informs us that we must use what we have in this world to try and help others around us. As my grandfather, a life-long camper, would say, "always leave your campsite better than when you found it." One of my goals in taking PAS teens on this trip to New Orleans is for us to talk with the people engaged in religious justice work there, Jewish and Christian alike, and to learn why they do what they do, how they do it and what role their religion plays in their efforts to improve their communities.

The Clergy and the Education Team hope this trip will be a catalyst for our high school students and eventually for our entire community. We hope they will bring back a spark for social justice work and an understanding of the role that Park Avenue Synagogue can play in that work. I look forward to working with them on the trip this month and in the months and years to come to explore the avenues of justice. I anticipate the travelers sharing what we learn and working with everyone in the PAS community as we strive to further our commitment to social justice so that we will leave our campsite better than when we found it.

Celebrating Park Avenue Synagogue

Henry, 2, comes home singing and dancing with his stuffed Torah after Thursday HaMishpacha Sheli with Sheldon.

Pamela, mother of five, had tears in her eyes watching her oldest child recite his Haftarah as he became a Bar Mitzvah.

Rachel and Derek, parents of four, have twice explored Israel with their family and PAS.

Marion, a senior adult, comes to services regularly and also enjoys Contemporary Jewish Thought class and Yiddish Club.

Adam, 15, and the other volunteers feel such a sense of community when they pack and distribute food each week to our Food Pantry clients.

Gleniss, a new member and a senior adult, is excited to be learning Hebrew for the first time.

Besides the typical camp fun that campers experience at summer camp, one of the highlights of Jewish summer camp is celebrating Shabbat together. Dressed in their summer finest – a crisp white shirt or white dress or even a camp tee – campers bring in Shabbat while sitting lakeside or on logs in the woods. They sing Shabbat songs to special camp tunes.

We want to bring Jewish summer camp Shabbat to you! Please join us on February 21 at 9:00 am for a TGIS session where we will plan our very own Jewish summer camp Shabbat. The next week, on Saturday, February 28, at 10:00 am we will get together again to lead camp style Shabbat services for our Congregational School learners.

If you are a seasoned camper, please come share your traditions with us.

For more information on Jewish Summer Camp Shabbat at PAS, or information about Jewish summer camps, contact Rabbi Eve Rudin at erudin@pasyn.org.

Israel with PAS – Sababa!

"All these persons numbered 66"
[Genesis 46:26, Parashat Va-yiggash, which we read in Yerushalayim on December 27, 2014]

BY LINDA YARDEN

From Hanukkah through the New Year, it was my pleasure to travel with fellow congregants on a unique journey through the Land of Israel as a member of the Bnei Mitzvah Experience. Under the spiritual leadership of Rabbi Cosgrove, Rabbi Zuckerman and Rabbi Savenor, with musical accompaniment provided by Eliana Light, this PAS whirlwind adventure provided us with the opportunity to foster community, deepen our connections, embrace our culture and share milestones and celebrations.

And the 66 of us did it all!

B, Bo, Boker Tov greeted us each morning in the jeeps and on the buses – where we sometimes sat together with our families and sometimes with adults on one bus and younger travelers on the other. Our community bonds were forged lighting hanukkiot in the richness of the Hula Valley and spinning Israeli dreidels with the Hebrew letter pey for the word po, meaning here, as in “A great miracle happened here.” We learned about Tel Dan, about Herzl, and about the Holocaust. Together we created unforgettable memories.

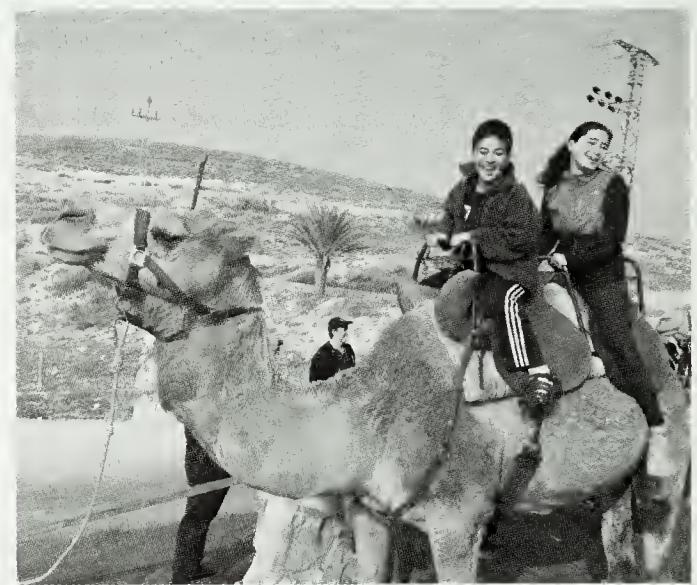

We connected with the people, bringing gifts packed on VKW Mitzvah Day to the Ethiopian Absorption Center, playing with the children there and listening, in fascination, to the tales of the Project Moses Aliyah. We shared Shabbat dinner with those courageous young men and women, Lone Soldiers of the IDF, who served in this past summer's Operation Protective Edge. We connected with the land, building a stone wall to protect farms at Hashomer Hachadash, riding camels like Abraham, climbing Masada, and immersing ourselves in the mineral waters and coating ourselves with the mud of the Dead Sea.

We inhaled the culture. We studied the mysticism of Tzfat and we breathed in the air of Yerushalayim. We stumbled through the throngs preparing for Shabbat at Machaneh Yehudah. We feasted on falafel, shawarma, ice cream and huge Israeli breakfasts. We savored the sweetness of the De Karina chocolate factory, the wines of Bahat and the flavors of the hummus that we prepared. We davened at the Wall and wandered the Mamilla mall. We learned about the past and the future of kibbutz life, about munitions on the border, about the Masorti Movement and pluralism, about the prospects for peace. We are grateful for the extraordinary, private view of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

We celebrated. Shehecheyanu. We thanked God for all of our incredible, new experiences. Arriving in Jerusalem. Celebrating the founding of the State of Israel at Independence Hall and marking our own birthdays and anniversaries. And of course, we celebrated all of our children. Donning their tallitot for the first time. The glowing Beit Midrash at the Hartman Institute was the setting for our joyful community Bnei Mitzvah celebration. Full participation and a lovely kiddush luncheon cemented our pride. At sunset a stunning group Havdalah around the pool overlooking the Old City moved all. Lailah Tov!

Sababa! Amazing! “I will always travel with Park Avenue Synagogue,” intoned one of the Bnei Mitzvah participants. We shall return.

YOU'RE INVITED

Berlin

PAS Trip to Poland and Germany October 11-19, 2015

Join Park Avenue Synagogue on a transformative journey – a trip to both historic sites and vibrant modern cultural centers. Together we will explore the extensive and complex history of European Jewry and grapple with the horrors of the Holocaust. We will also meet members of the modern Jewish communities of Warsaw, Krakow and Berlin, cities that are experiencing a rebirth that seemed unimaginable decades ago.

For the full itinerary and registration materials, visit daattravel.com. In the search box type “Park Avenue Synagogue.” On the next page, click on Europe Trip: From Tragedy to Rebirth.

Highlights of the trip include:

- Visit to the newly opened Museum of the History of Polish Jews in Warsaw
- Dialogue with Rabbi Michael Schudrich, Chief Rabbi of Poland
- Walk through the Warsaw Ghetto
- Visit to the Altshul, the oldest synagogue in Poland
- Tour of Auschwitz-Birkenau
- Shabbat services and dinner at the Oranienburger Synagogue with members of the Berlin Jewish community
- Visit to the Jewish Museum of Berlin, designed by architect Daniel Libeskind

There will also be educational sessions and informational meetings in the months leading up to the trip.

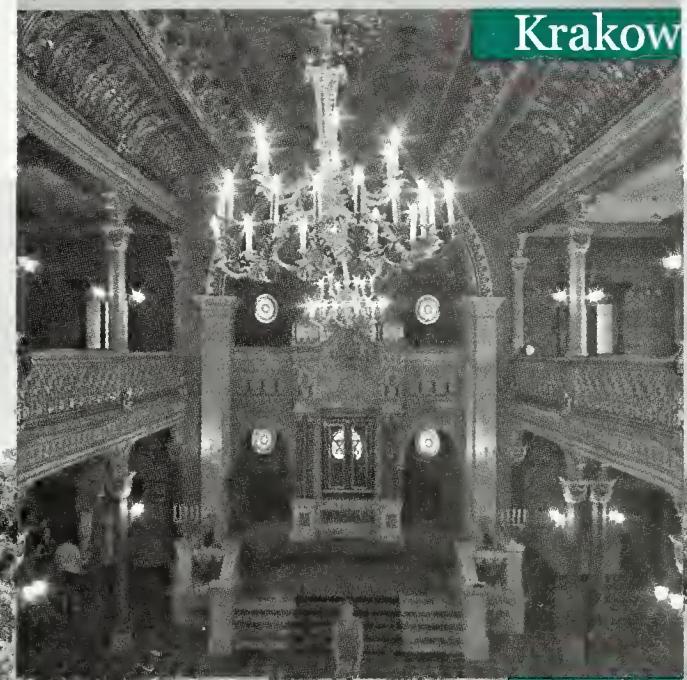

We hope you will join us.

To register, please go to the trip web page at doot.com (instructions on left), or you may call the Doo't Customer Service Center at 888-811-2812, x1, Monday-Friday, 9:00 am-5:30 pm.

For more information, please contact Rabbi Charles Sovenor, Director of Congregational Education, at csovenor@posyn.org or 212-369-2600, x136.

Joseph Bau: A Man of His Time and Beyond

February – April

Joseph Bau recorded the human experience for more than seven decades, in stark, black and white images of the Holocaust; in colorful oils created throughout his life in Israel; and in art of the Hebrew letters. As a 20-year-old prisoner, Joseph Bau saved his own life by creating maps and documents for his Nazi captors, all the while fabricating documents that helped many others to escape the Nazis. Beginning in 1950, Bau documented the experience of the early years of the State of Israel in art and in film. Called the “Disney of Israel,” Joseph Bau created classic early animation and titles for many of Israel’s early films. His iconic advertising logos are recognized decades later.

Parent and Teen Shabbat Study with Rabbi Cosgrove

Saturday | February 7 | 4:00 – 5:00 pm

Post-Bnei Mitzvah learners and their parents are invited to meet at Rabbi Cosgrove's apartment for study, schmoozing, snacks and Shabbat fun!

LET'S GO!

A Night on Broadway: Disgraced

Wednesday | February 4 | Meet at 6:00 pm for a 7:00 pm curtain time

Disgraced is a critically acclaimed drama about the stories we tell our friends and the lies we tell ourselves to find our place in the American Dream. Written by Ayad Akhtar, an astonishing new voice in American theater, this provocative tale of big city aspiration and cultural assimilation dares to face the truth hiding just below the deception. After the show, we'll discuss the themes and ideas it brings up over dinner.

8th Grade Trip to Birmingham and Atlanta

Friday – Sunday | February 13 – 15

Students in grade 8 will travel to Birmingham, Alabama and Atlanta, Georgia with Rabbi Witkovsky and Jordan Soffer for a once-in-a-lifetime trip on the theme: The Southern Civil Rights Journey – “For We Were Once Strangers In A Strange Land.”

High School Trip to New Orleans

Friday – Sunday | February 20 – 22

Join the PAS team on a trip to New Orleans to explore social justice, interfaith opportunities and jazz, and to experience a vibrant southern Jewish community. This trip is open to all students in grades 9 – 12.

Dinner and Discussions

Wednesdays | February 4, 11, 25 | 6:00 pm

Enjoy dinner and discussion with Rabbi Witkovsky, Jordan Soffer, and Rabbi Savenor. We'll look at issues of Jewish identity, Israeli politics, and general questions in modern Judaism. Also Coffee Talk with Pauline Zablow!

College Connections: Help us keep in touch with your college student on campus! High School graduates remain part of the PAS family during their college years. They receive emails with synagogue news, updates, and insights from PAS clergy and educators, plus holiday packages several times a year. If you've not yet registered or updated your student's contact information on pasyn.org, do it now, so they will receive their Purim package at the start of next month.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Safety First! Watching What We Eat and Serve

BERYL CHERNOV

In an effort to be a warm, welcoming and safe environment, Park Avenue Synagogue is now seeking to be a “nut aware” and food allergy sensitive institution. With a special eye out for our children, we recognize that food allergies affect 15 million Americans, including approximately one in every 13 children in the U.S. – or roughly two in every classroom. Although nearly any food is capable of causing an allergic reaction, only eight foods account for 90 percent of all food-allergic reactions in the United States: peanuts, tree nuts, milk, eggs, wheat, soy, fish and shellfish.

Over the past several months, our lay-led Food Allergy Task Force, working in close collaboration with members of the senior staff, has carefully designed a series of guidelines that are being implemented throughout the synagogue. These guidelines include allergy awareness education and training for staff, protocols to be used for the safety of our food-allergic learners, an effort to purchase food made in nut free locations when possible, signage to discourage nuts and nut-related products from being consumed in the building, and instructions given to our catering partner to make an effort for congregational events to be “nut aware.” These efforts involve all youth-related educational departments (ECC, Young Family Education, Camp Keshet, Congregational School, Teen Program) as well as the broader synagogue. The new safety guidelines should be followed for all programs and events involving food throughout the building.

It is very important to note that as a mixed-use building with a catering facility that hosts external events, PAS is not a nut-free building, but rather a “nut-aware” institution. We do not have a nut-free kitchen, but for synagogue-related schools, programs and events, the guidelines that are being implemented should foster a safer and more accommodating environment for our children, as well as all members and visitors.

While we are trying to do our part, we ask that members please do the same. Please do not bring nuts or food with nuts into the building. If you come in contact with nuts prior to arriving at PAS, please wash your hands. Unless your child is required to bring lunch to the ECC, please do not bring in any outside food to our youth education classrooms. By following these guidelines, together we can make Park Avenue Synagogue a safer environment for all.

Please be in touch with me if you have any questions on our efforts. We appreciate your cooperation as these guidelines take effect and become part of our institutional culture.
